

The Late Republic of Texas

1836.

To the Heirs of Isham B. Phillips

6150 Bushels Corn a 10f-	$225. -
100 Hogs, many of them fat killing hogs a $3.	300. -
200 Bushels Potatoes (200) a 6f-	150. - 25 Head of Cattle (200 head) - $5.	1000. -
60 Bushels of choice peas a 10f-	75. -
700 Rails a $2. burning & damage done to buildings	25. -
Household furniture, bedding &c
100 Head fowls, Turkeys, Geese, Ducks a 2f -	25. -

The State of Texas

County of Wharton } Personally appeared before me Leonidas M. Phillips who being duly sworn according to law declares that the above account is just and true and that no part thereof has been paid.

Sworn and subscribed to before me ~~the~~ the 23rd day of June 1856. to which I certify by writing my name & affixing the impress of my seal Notarial the day and year above written

Robert Caldwell Notary Public
Wharton County

The State of Texas

County of Wharton } Before me personally appeared Jonathan Kempf being duly sworn according to law declares that in the year 1836 he lived on the plantation belonging to heirs of Isham B. Phillips, which adjoined that of Isham B. Phillips. he therefore was well acquainted with the stock of cattle, hogs, and crops, together with the improvements made made on said plantation, at the time of the Mexican invasion in the Year 1836. There was one hundred and fifty bushels of corn, worth one dollar and a quarter a bushel, One hundred head of hogs worth three dollars each Two hundred bushels potatoes worth seventy five cents a bushel, two hundred head of cattle worth five dollars each. Burning of rails & damage done to buildings, twenty-five dollars. Fifty head of fowls worth 25 cents each. The cost was a total loss. Some few of the cattle and hogs may have been recovered, The above was destroyed by the invasion from Mexico. Jonathan Kempf